

Year 3 Art

Last term, we linked our art and history together. We were inspired by aboriginal artists and through the technique of printing, we created Stone Age inspired artwork. The backgrounds are typical colours that are used in aboriginal art. We then studied different types of lines and carefully printed different styles of lines using dots. After this, children created string prints depicting Stone Age life, painted it and printed it onto the background.

