

Science week

This week we celebrated science week throughout the school. We carried out 'wow' science experiments and the children have really enjoyed this shared experience with their whole class, making memories and being wowed by the wonders of science. All the experiments the children have done, are really simple and easily replicated at home.

Year 3 did an experiment of a self- inflating balloon using a plastic bottle, vinegar and baking soda.

Follow this link to have a go at home <https://allfortheboys.com/science-fun>